	08-08-2006 Shri Alok Bakshi, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Sumesh Bajaj, Govt. Advocate for the State/ respondents, on advance copy. Heard. By the instant writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged her transfer order dated 07.07.2006 (Annexure-P/1), passed by respondent No.1 whereby the petitioner has been transferred to Pamgarh. The main ground of challenge is that where the petitioner has been transferred there are already four lady Health Visitors and the sanctioned posts are only four. The petitioner has been transferred in addition to the four existing Health Visitors where there is no sanctioned post for the fifth person. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that apart from four persons, three additional persons are already working, therefore, against the four sanctioned posts, seven persons are already working and the petitioner has been transferred as the eighth person. He further submits that in the circumstances the petitioner may be allowed to make a detailed representation to respondent No.1 and respondent No.1 be directed to decide the same to which learned counsel appearing for the State/ respondents has no objection. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner appears to be just, fair and reasonable. Therefore, the petitioner is allowed to make a detailed representation to
